

FAO Small Scale Fisheries University DAY

10th November 2020

Programme

Opening addresses

The event organized by the FAO Mediterranean Projects – AdriaMed, EastMed, CopeMed and MedSudMed – and the GFCM BlackSea4Fish project within the framework of the FAO-GFCM Small Scale Fisheries University will be opened.

Marcelo Vasconcellos, Fisheries Resource Officer, FAO

Elisabetta Morello, Fisheries Resource Officer, FAO-GFCM

Cooperation in Mediterranean and Black Sea (videos)

Introduction of the topic and objectives of the DAY, keynote presentation on FAO, SSF guidelines and regional Projects in Mediterranean and Black Sea

Marcelo Vasconcellos, Fisheries Resource Officer, FAO

Local events:

Introduction of the host institution/s and key note presentation of the main theme of discussion.

Moderator at local level will animate the discussion. The following topics could be addressed:

- i. Collaborative Science
- ii. Data collection
- iii. SSF mapping value of fishers knowledge
- iv. Local Ecological Knowledge

During the event the participants will be invited to complete a short questionnaire on SSF challenges and priorities.

Open discussion around the topic of the DAY and how to enhance SSF sector through collaboration

SSF University way forward

Closure message by FAO. The participants will be invited to leave a short video message on priorities, feedback on the event and suggestions on future similar initiatives.